our 1947 Helianthus-

AND MANAGED BY MARY ELLEN PHILLIPPY

A scrapbook is a precious thing filled with work,
memories, and dreams
May our 1947 Helianthus be as a Randolph-Mason scrapbookreminding us always of those who guided us, those we knew best, the things we did,
those in our hands, our lovely ladies, and the games we played.

Our memories of-

-those who guided us-

With sincere appreciation to Mr. James Frederick Peake
we dedicate this volume of our Helianthus. He will always be a part of Randolph Mason.
When we read our newspapers and listen to our radios, we shall remember his voice saying
"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty". It is with a profound sense of gratitude for the counsel and guidance he has given us that we say,
Thank you, Mr Peake.

JUNE 1, 1947

NOW SHE'S A "GUMMY ALUM"

Class Prophecy

June 2, 1962

Dear Miss Stokes,

The alumnae of '47 are happy not to be so lost in the wide, wide world after 10 these many years. In response to your queries about us all, I find it relatively simple to answer with the aid of WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA, which the editor, Elizabeth Leatherwood Thomas, sends me annually.

These R.-M. girls (if we may still call ourselves thus) are perpetuating the housing shortage in New York. Marian Leake is still dancing the lead in Peg Freeman's lasting success, "Withdrawal into Tomorrow." You should have seen Alice Mantz's column in the TIMES, extolling it more than somewhat. Then, too, there was most favorable criticism in Jan Buys's MINUTE HAND, which should catch up with the N.Y. TIMES in not too many years. The big city hasn't been the same since the big celebrity party that Martha Williams threw a few weeks ago--everyone was there! B. J. Harrison, who happened to be passing through on a concert tour, dropped in long enough for a few sharps and flats. Even Kay Rives was around--she's still trying to get on the staff of the NEW YORKER, you know.

To change the scene to the other coast, I have a modicum of news from Hollywood, too. I hear that Liz Lampkin (having usurped Orson Welles's position) is working on a big new hit, starring Liz Watkins. Millie Keller, who is completely tangled up in the first two reels of film, seems to think it's great. And, of course, old Martha Lee Reams still broadcasts from that vicinity, too, as you can probably hear on her toothpaste program, "Baby Molo" every Wednesday night. (And I hear that Shirley Austin is her gag writer.)

As I was in Washington the other day, I had a glimpse at the files in the patent office... The newest sensation is the integrating and differentiating machine that Edie Flow-ers and Annis Lick have recently perfected. And, surely, you have heard of the new Sebrell 1000-key piano. Before I left the capital, I went by the Library of Congress, where I found that Virginia Ruland and Barbara Mahler occupied large offices with their respective names tabbed on the doors; and whom should I run into in the stacks but Dean Sumerau! She and Inzer Byers plan to finish research on their book by August.

Have you seen the new fashion magazine, A LA MODE, that Dot Whiting is editing? Jackie Curtis was on the cover, which is no longer a singular occurrence--and the gown she was modeling was a Flo Mitchell creation from Nieman-Mitchell's.

The Navy wives seem to be getting around... It happens that Nancy Wilde, Nan Taylor, and Flo Leachman are organizing an alumnae chapter in Hong Kong. Their plan is to help with Nancy Dodson and Norma Lee Fierro's welfare project of bettering the social standing of the coolie. This movement is surely gaining momentum--Janet Fogarty has already written two books about it.

A little further to the west, we can find the nucleus of an alumnae club in Paris... Gerry Ervin, in her third attempt to fly around the world, crashed into the Eiffel Tower, which Jane Kiefer is at present reconstructing. A Student's life in this cosmopolitan center must be very gay, for Dot Mathews is still at the university--she writes Dr. Bowman that she is finally getting a "feeling" for the French language. Vivien Mitchell is another one too devoted to Paris to tear herself away. As we all know, she is U. S. delegate to the League of United Nations and has recently introduced a bill that we do away with the existing currency, using in preference the standard paper money printed by the Mabel Hooker concern.

Back in the states is Kitty Hunt--she has not yet decided what she wants to do. If she gets no better offers within five years, she plans to become her father's secretary. As for Keith Cutchins, she is making good use of her major subject--she still speaks English every day...

VIRGINIA GOODALL
President

Student Government

All of us here at Randolph-Macon are proud of our Student Government which had its beginning in 1902. It was then that Dr. William Waugh Smith, our founder, entrusted to the students a share in their government. In appreciation of the privilege we received, the students are conscious of an individual responsibility, and each girl cooperates to maintain the high standards that our founder set for us. Through Student Government, the faculty, administration and students work together to promote the welfare and happiness of our college community.

KATHLEEN LITTLE
Chairman of Judiciary Committee

The strongest force at Randolph-Macon that makes us all feel as one is the Honor Principle. It is a spirit that makes for cooperation and trust of others as we uphold it in our social, academic, and personal activities. It is a responsibility that every girl accepts and shares with all. It does not always make life easier, but it always makes it happier and better. We take a great deal of pride in it and our duty is to make those who come after us even more proud. This tradition began with the founding of our school. It did not come all at once, but it has grown and is still growing as Randolph-Macon does. Each girl, as she passes through the halls, gives something to the Honor Principle, and it gives something to her; neither can lose what has been gained. Many thanks to those who have gone before us and who have given us what we have now. To those of the future we give "our" Principle with hope and pride, and welcome them to our group.

-our lovely ladies-

MILTON A. CANIFF

December
18th
1946

Dear Miss Edwards:

I am returning herewith the photographs of Randolph Macon's lovelies, sent to be judged for the feature section of the 1947 HELIANTHUS.

Why so many girls from one college can be so beautiful I don't know...but I do know that it poses a delightful difficulty for the one who has to call them off by the numbers one to eight.

The winner and seven runners-up have been designated by number on the photographs.

I certainly would enjoy seeing a copy of the HELIANTHUS. It would be added pleasure to learn the names of these charming ladies.

Cordially,

Milton Caniff

RANDOLPH-MACON WOMAN'S COLLEGE

LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA

THEODORE H. JACK, Ph.D., LL.D., President

A SOUTHERN COLLEGE WITH NATIONAL RECOGNITION AND NATIONAL PATRONAGE

Randolph - Macon Woman's College has long been recognized as one of the leading colleges for women in America. It is approved by all the national standardizing associations; its charter of Phi Beta Kappa was the first granted to a Southern college for women; its degrees are accepted by all universities in the United States and foreign countries for unconditioned admission to their graduate schools.

Dear R.-M. Girl,—

"The Columns" stand across the street,
With "fashions in foods" you to greet,
From 8 a. m. 'till 11 at night
With music, flowers, and prices right,
The Coca-Cola room where you may buy
Sandwiches, candy, cakes and pie.
Your birthday cakes we'll make for you,
And cater for your clubs and sororities too—
With anything that pleases you.

Joyful and gay we'll make week-ends,
Caring for your parents and friends.
In antiques we deal—and gifts galore,
You'll find in our little treasure store.
Come, R.-M. girls, be happy and gay,
As you feast with us from day to day.

Compliments of

THE STEAK CELLAR

One of the nice things about Lynchburg is the quality of the young ladies who come to us from all over the nation to be educated at Randolph-Macon Woman's College.

To those of you who are leaving Lynchburg this year, we offer our best wishes and the hope that you may return to live permanently among us.

Come to our offices for a bird's-eye view of our city, your college and the mountains beyond.

Experience

LYNCHBURG ENGRAVED ANNUALS ARE BUILT UPON YEARS OF EXPERIENCE
AS SPECIALISTS IN THE FIELD OF SCHOOL PUBLICATIONS

IN successfully fulfilling the requirements of the modern College Annual Staff we have combined a comprehensive and systematic servicing program with that high standard of quality so essential in the production of fine yearbooks. Lynchburg engraved annuals are built by an organization specializing on school annuals exclusively, thereby assuring each staff of the personal and intelligent assistance so necessary in the planning and designing of a truly satisfactory book.

Creating

YEAR BOOKS

of Distinction

It takes more than "good printing" to create outstanding Year Books.

The J. P. Bell Company specializes in Year Books. First, by maintaining a Department of trained and experienced personnel that devotes its entire time to the planning and servicing of Year Books. Secondly, by maintaining a plant equipped with the most modern machinery, manned by skilled, efficient workmen.

There is a certain mark of Distinction on all J. P. Bell publications.
